Dear Comrade

Namaskar. We extend our New Year Greetings to yourself and to all your members. We hope that we will be able to settle soon the long pending issues concerning BSNL retirees.

Our 2nd Triennial All India Conference held at Bangalore on 21 & 22 November 2015 discussed in detail about

1. The inordinate delay in extending the 78.2% benefit to BSNL Retirees
2. Restoration of Medical Allowance without voucher for the BSNL Retirees
3. The future Pension revision of BSNL Retirees.
4. The general attack on the pension and medical facilities the World over.
5. The need to bring about unity amongst the pensioners' organisations.

The conference also observed the organisational divisions among the BSNL retirees and directed the CHQ to take appropriate steps to

1. First to coordinate the activities of the BSNL Retirees' organizations on their Main Demands
2. Try to form a Federation or a Coordinating Committee of BSNL Retirees' Organisations to spearhead the struggle.
3. Also take steps to coordinate MTNL Retirees' Organisations.

Friend, We would like to know your reaction for these proposals which help us to move further.

We strongly believe that Unity alone is the Best Weapon in our hands to defend us and with an approach of mutual trust and understanding it will be easier to achieve. We are prepared for an open and frank discussion on the issue at any place or date, suitable to us all.

Expecting your reply

With regards

Yours comradely

G. Natarajan
